No person may be candidate for more than one office with the exception to combined office of Secretary/Treasurer.
- (d) A member may nominate himself or herself for office with a written petition signed by three members in good standing.
- (e) Nominations may not be made at the annual meeting or any way other than provided in this section.

Article V Committees

Section 1: the Board may each year appoint standing committees to advance the work of the club in such matters as dog shows, obedience trials, matches, publicity, trophies, membership and other fields which may well be served by committees. Such committees shall always be subject to the final authority of the Board. Special committees may also be appointed by the Board to aid it on particular projects.

Section 2: The committee chairperson shall select members for their committees from the membership as deemed needed to perform the committee's function.

Section 3: Any committee chairperson appointment may be terminated by the majority vote of the full membership of the Board upon written notice of the appointee.

Article VI Discipline

Section 1: Any member suspended from the privileges of the American Kennel Club is automatically suspended for the privileges of this Club for a like person. Following reinstatement by the American Kennel Club, reinstatement to this Club will be subject to a review and vote of the Board.

Section 2: Charges not in conjunction with an AKC licensed Club event: A member charged with misconduct as an AKC licensed show held by this Club shall be subject to a bench committee hearing held in accordance with AKC guidelines.

Section 3: Charges not in conjunction with an AKC licensed Club event: Any member may prefer charges against a member for alleged misconduct prejudicial to the best interest of the Club and or the sport or purebred dogs. Written charges with specifications may be filed in duplicate to the Secretary, together with a substantial deposit in an amount to be set by the Board, which shall be forfeited if the Board following a hearing does not sustain such charges. The Secretary shall provide a copy of the charges to each member of the Board or present them at a Board meeting. The Board shall first consider if the actions alleged in the charges do, in fact, constitute conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the Club and/or the sport of purebred dogs. If this finding fails, the Board may refuse to entertain jurisdiction. If this finding fails, the Board may refuse to entertain jurisdiction. If the Board entertains Jurisdiction of the charges, it shall fix a hearing date not less than three weeks or more than six weeks thereafter. The hearing will be held within Curry County, Oregon at such place, day and time designated by the Board. The Secretary shall promptly send a copy of the charge by certified mail to the accused member with notice of the hearing and the assurance that the member may personally appear in their own defense and bring witnesses to the alleged actions if he or she wishes.

Section 4: Board Hearing: The Board shall have complete authority to decide whether counsel may attend the hearing, but both complainant and defendant shall be treated uniformly in that regard. Should the charges be sustained after hearing all evidence and testimony presented by complainant and defendant, the Board may by a majority vote of those present suspend the defendant from all privileges of the Club for not more than six months from the date of the hearing, and if it deems that the punishment insufficient, it may also recommend to the membership that the penalty be expulsion. In such case, the suspension shall not restrict the defendant's right to appear before his fellow members at the ensuing Club meeting which considers the Board's recommendation. Immediately after the Board has reached a decision, its findings shall be put in written form and filed with the Secretary. The Secretary, in turn, shall notify each of the parties of the Board's decision and penalty, if any.

Section 5: Expulsion: Expulsion from membership may be accomplished only following suspension by and with the recommendation of the Board as provided in Section 4. In such case the suspension shall not restrict the defendant's right to appear before the membership at an ensuing Club meeting which is considering the Board's recommendation. Such a proceeding may be held at a regular or special Club meeting held within 60 days, but not less than 10 days, of the Board hearing. The defendant may appear on his/her own behalf, though no evidence or witnesses shall be heard at this meeting. The President shall read the charges and the Board's findings and recommendation and then ask the defendant, if present, to speak on his/her own behalf if he/she wishes. The members of the meeting shall then by secret written ballot vote on the expulsion. A 2/3 vote of the member in attendance shall be required for expulsion. If the expulsion is not so voted, the Board's suspension shall stand.
